Committee Reports

Weed Control: Sam Seavitte reported....WEEDS HAVE STOPPED GROWING. Everything has been put away for winter. Rich Gossling and Jeff Coultrip will check for new buoys to replace a few of the old ones. Rich Gossling suggested Main Marine in Racine. Sam Seavitte will talk with Mike at the Town office about a general check up for the harvester. New tires are needed on the harvester trailer. Rich Gossling suggested getting the tires now and not waiting until next spring. He will check with Mike for correct size. Mike will arrange for tire purchases and changing the tires. Rich Gossling requested an expense of $2400 for the cost of new tires.
Rich Gossling/ Bob Chudy Motion carried.

Grants: No report

Watershed: Jeff Coultrip has discussed silt fencing on the new subdivision on Hyw. 45 with Joe Kozak. Rich Gossling stated that he spoke with Joe about the silt fencing and Joe does not think the new construction will create a problem; however, Joe said he will keep on “top of it”.

Lake Monitoring: Ernie Chiodo has finished for the year. THANK YOU ERNIE The clarity on last monitoring on Oct. 15, 2006 was still murky.

Old Business: Stocking of George Lake. Kevin Nichols received a call from the Fish Stocking Company and explained that the order was never processed. The Company apologized! The company will do the fish stocking in the spring 2007 and said they will “give us a good deal”.

New Business: none

Any other business allowed by law: none

Citizen's comments: Discussion about the water level being high for this time of year. Rich Gossling stated that the spillway is just a natural high level and there is not a problem with freezing. There has been a light blue paddle boat floating near Chiodo's shore. Does any know who is missing one?

Next meeting -- Friday, February 2, 2007
